

In cooperation with: RINA, ABB, ENEL, Ignazio MESSINA, GRIMALDI lines, GNV

1st Sustainable Maritime Transport Conference

Preliminary Programme

Genova, Palazzo san Giorgio – March 12, 2012 – 09.30

Welcome - Luigi Merlo – President Genoa PA, Paolo Pissarello – Deputy Mayor of Genoa, Franco Cornagliotto – President SOS-LOGISTICA

Keynote Address: Helmut Morsi – Dep. Head of Unit, EC DG-MOVE : Sustainable Maritime Transport

Morning Session – Ship propulsion and emissions

Chairman: Roberto Martinoli – GNV, CEO

Introduction: Enrico Pujia - Italian Ministry of Economic Development, Infrastructure, Transports

Paolo Salza - RINA: New generations of eco-compatible ships

Remo Pertica - SIIT-TPG (Genoa University): Hydrogen Propulsion

Ruggero Dambra – CETENA: Eco-MOS project

Paul Kyprianou – GRIMALDI Lines: Environment and economy compatibility (TBC)

Buffet (offered by RINA)

Afternoon Session – Green Ports

Chairman: Fabio Capocaccia - IIC and SOS LOGISTICA

Introduction: Cosimo Caliendo – Italian Ministry of Economic Development, Infrastructures, Transports: (TBC)

Sonia Sandei - ENEL Green Power: Energy Generation and distribution

Stefano Messina – Ignazio Messina SpA: Sustainability of cargo terminals for new RoRo traffic (TBC)

GB Ferrari - ABB Automation : cold ironing in passenger terminals

Round table – Experiences in Italian ports : PA Genoa, Civitavecchia, Venice, Assoport

Conclusions: Corrado Clini – Minister of Environment (TBC)